Guest Editorial	1423–1424
Gordon G. Krauss
Artificial Intelligence, Design Judgment, and Trust: Reflections on MDW XIV	1425–1432
Gordon G. Krauss
The Manifestations of Conscientious Design in the Context of a Sustainable Engineering Project in Hawai'i	1433–1447
Austin Morgan Kainoa Peters, Jiwon Kim, Şenay Purzer, Aaron Hanai and Charles Xie
How do Co-Curricular Interventions Impact Engineering Identity	1448–1456
Pavan Kumar, Oredola Adebayo and Joshua D. Summers
Your Newest Teammate Needs Training Wheels: AI in Engineering Design	1457–1465
Micah Lande
Embedding Ethical Audits in AI Engineering Education: A Classroom-Based Intervention to Advance Ethical Reasoning	1466–1482
Pun To (Douglas) Yung
Curriculum Development and Education Research for Generative Design Thinking	1483–1496
John Clay, Nalin Varma, Zhenghui Sha, Russell C. Reid and Kameron Eves, Molly H. Goldstein and Charles Xie
The Transformative Impact of Student Innovation Competitions and Programs on Innovation Mindset	1497–1510
Sadan Kulturel-Konak and Abdullah Konak
How Can AI Help Design? Lessons Learned from Engineering Students and Faculty	1511–1522
Kaela M. Martin, E. Ashley Rea, Akshata J. Balghare and Brian D. Roth
The Socio-economic Dynamics in Artificial Intelligence Development: Power, Privilege, and Poverty in Capital Formation	1523–1533
Jan Auernhammer and Ade Mabogunje
Evaluating In-Class Assignment for Graduate Students Using Bloom's Taxonomy-Based PrePostClass Formative Assessments	1534–1543
Reem Khojah and Josephine Relaford-Doyle
Fostering Innovation in Engineering Students: The Role of Generative AI in Engineering Design Class	1544–1556
Daigo Misaki and Komei Miura
Reframing AI in Education: Generating Design Requirements to Guide The Development of AI Agents to Support Front-End Design Learning	1557–1574
Corey Schimpf, Siddharthsihn Jadeja, Shanna R. Daly, Krina Patel, Jutshi Agarwal, A. Lynn Stephens, Carolyn Giroux, Kara Stark and Leslie Bondaryk
A Framework for Reasoning in Design: Navigating Between Formal, Informal, and Nonformal Strategies	1575–1593
Yakhoub Ndiaye and Jenn Campbell
A First Prototype: Collaborating with a LLM to Understand Belonging Among Engineering Design Students	1594–1611
Sheri D. Sheppard, Aya Mouallem, Helen L. Chen, Lauren Aquino Shluzas, Gregg A. Muragishi, Susanne Krumme, Richard Quaderer Lizárraga and Nico Henning
